

Sunbeam MCC Marque Specialists – January 2016

The following members have generously offered their services to the Club to provide information and answer queries on the following marques:

Abingdon Motorcycles, AKD, Bloomfield and Kerry-Abingdon: Bill Whitely

AC Sociable : Ian McGill

Blackburne : Rick Parkington, staff writer for Classic Bike magazine. www.rickparkington.co.uk

BSA Model L (Flat-tank 1923 - 1928) : Rick Parkington

Coventry Eagle (1900 – 1940) : John Hodson. John has written the most comprehensive publication on the make, 'Coventry Eagle - The History of a Motorcycle Company'. Visit John's Coventry Eagle page here: Website: www.coventryeaglemotorcycle.org.uk

Indian (1928 on) : Rick Parkington

James : Paul Morley

Kerry-Abingdon : Bill Whiteley

Levis (pre-1915) : Rob Smith

Martinsyde : Rick Parkington

New Imperial: Andy Dean. Member of the New Imperial Owners Association for quite a few years and fairly good experience of most of the range right up to the really modern 1930's models.

Norton (flat-tank) : Mr Wallis Holmes.

Quadrant: Eddie Keightley

Raleigh : Dave Comber

Rex Acme : Rick Parkington

Rover : Geoff Morris

Sidecars : Roy Plummer

Sunbeam (pre-1915) : Geoff Morris

Sunbeam (pre-1940) : Chris Pile

Triumph Veteran and Vintage : Mike Lawson

Triumph 'C' series from 1929-32 : Rob Woodford - models CN and CSD (1929-32) and the CO and CTT (1929-31)

Velocette (pre-War) : Dave Masters. Dave has written several books, including the classic 'Velocette: An Illustrated History of All Models 1905 – 1971' (ISBN 0 9537733 4 5)

Werner : Brian Knight

These club members have all kindly volunteered their services; do remember that while they are all experts they are not commercial concerns. Whilst I'm sure they will do their best to help, if contacting them by phone do ring at a sensible time and don't expect an instant response.